

How to invite people to church

...without being awkward or pushy

STRATEGIES FOR THE SOCIALLY ANXIOUS

- Subscribe to your church's YouTube channel, social media pages, or leave a Google review to help others find us
- Like/Comment on your church's content so that Facebook/Instagram increases our church's visibility
- Share posts/clips/messages on your personal page so that your friends can view them
- Email/message a specific friend who might need to hear a particular message published by our church

STRATEGIES FOR THE SOCIAL BUTTERFLY

- When it comes up in conversation, share about the impact your church is having on you/your family
- When you discover a shared interest, invite a friend to a community event put on by our church (i.e. topical class, children's event, etc.)
- If it appears they might be open to trying church again, text them on Friday or Saturday night giving them the option to sit with you

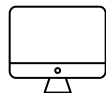

Resources

...if you need them

OUR VALUES

Sometimes, the biggest obstacle for someone trying a church is their values and beliefs. If that comes up in conversation, consider sharing the following pages...

thepeakchurch.org/who-we-are/beliefs/

youtube.com/thepeakchurch

Topics: Mental Health, LGBTQ Inclusion, Race, etc

SAMPLE INVITE TO CHURCH

Hi XXXX!

I hope you are having a great weekend!
Totally zero pressure, but our family is going to the 9am service at our church tomorrow. If you were thinking about giving The Peak a try, you can sit with us and our kids can go to class together. Again, no obligation whatsoever. We just know that sometimes trying a church can be hard.

If tomorrow isn't a good time, let's get together soon!